

Mission Australia Employment Solutions

Employer Solutions

If you're looking for staff, or if you need candidates for on-the-job training, Mission Australia Employment Solutions can help.

About us

We provide a free service designed to help you hire people with the right skills for your business.

We'll also provide you with ongoing assistance, training and support to help make your new employee a valuable long term member of your team.

We can also help you to access a range of other support services, depending on the circumstances of your new employee.

Financial incentives

We can provide you with information and help you access available wage subsidies and incentives that are available. This includes:

- Wage subsidies that may be available
- Government incentives available for hiring an apprentice or trainee
- Additional financial assistance* to employers of people with a disability to help cover costs such as modifying your workplace (if required) or purchasing adaptive technologies or interpreting services.

Ongoing support*

We'll stay in touch with you for at least 6 months – and even longer in some situations – to provide ongoing support and to assist with the transition of the candidate into your workplace.

Why you should consider hiring one of our job seekers

People with disability bring a range of skills, abilities and qualifications to the workplace. Many businesses already employ workers with disability because it makes good business sense:

- people with disability can have fewer accidents at work – and therefore lower workers compensation costs
- people with disability can have lower absenteeism and often take less sick leave than other employees
- the costs of hiring people with disability can be significantly lower than hiring other employees
- employing people with disability can build staff morale, raise management awareness of workplace practices and conditions, and increase customer and staff loyalty.

How to apply

If you're looking for staff, or if you'd like an on-the-job trainee, simply register a few details about the position and skills you're looking for. One of our consultants will get back to you to discuss your needs. We will then look for suitable candidates for your position.
